Description of the event (references): Hiking in Japan (Lonely Planet) pp.236-237 This is the famous shrine with thousands of orange toriis lining the paths. It is actually dedicated to the gods of rice, sake and business. You will also meet many statues of foxes (messengers of gods). The hike itself is really easy and will take one or two hours. It's nearly impossible to get lost: just follows the toriis (and tourists)
